Fans have plenty more exciting releases to look forward to from Brother Maven in the near future.

"The song is truly irresistible and boasts soulful melodies and relatable lyrics that recall the band's deep southern roots while speaking to the array of emotions we can experience when falling head over heels for someone," Musical Notes Global

On May 1st, also celebrated as Global Love Day, Brother Maven endeavors to advocate for love and kindness. When discussing the latest music, Daniel Mason Schwartz, the lead singer and guitarist, expressed, "'I Just Wanna Love You' is a classic love song that everyone can relate to. Love songs are resonant, and even more compelling when written from a place of experience."

"Baby, from the twilight still to the midnight movin'
Blue eyes burning me down girl you know what you're doin'
When we turn out the lights and we dance to the music
I know what you're thinking and I'm thinking like that, too...
I just wanna love you"
